OVERVIEW

Recognized as the largest trade show of its kind, the 72nd International Air-Conditioning, Heating, Refrigerating Exposition (AHR Expo) will be hosted at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida. This year marks 90 years since the Show hosted its first gathering in 1930, bringing together HVACR professionals from all sectors of the industry. Serving commercial, industrial, residential, institutional and technology markets, the Show is the industry's cumulative gathering of all professionals and markets under one roof. Each year, manufacturers from all over the world exhibit their systems, equipment, and components with air-conditioning, heating, plumbing, ventilation, and refrigeration applications. Thousands of contractors, engineers, OEMs, distributors and other industry professionals attend the Exposition in search of new and innovative products and services that enhance the way they do business.

ABOUT THE AHR EXPO

The AHR Expo is the world's largest HVACR event, attracting the most comprehensive gathering of industry professionals from around the globe each year. The Show provides a unique forum where manufacturers of all sizes and specialties, whether a major industry brand or innovative start-up, can come together to share ideas and showcase the future of HVACR technology under one roof. Since 1930, the AHR Expo has remained the industry's best place for OEMs, engineers, contractors, facility operators, architects, educators and other industry professionals to explore the latest trends and applications and to cultivate mutually beneficial business relationships. The next Show, co-sponsored by ASHRAE and AHRI, will be held Feb. 3-5, 2020 in Orlando, and is held concurrently with ASHRAE's Winter Conference.
